

Julia Lautenbacher

adventurous, sensitive, kind

Julia Lautenbacher studied music for schools with a focus on singing at the University of Music and Theatre in Munich. During this time, she received singing lessons from Claudia Reinhard and Martin Danes and gained valuable experience in ensemble and choral work with Prof. Martin Steidler. Julia developed a passion for ensemble singing and decided to complete additional vocal studies at the University of Augsburg with Daniela Denschlag.

Julia is currently a member of the Kammerchor Stuttgart under the conducting of Frieder Bernius, the ensemble Lauswerk under the conducting of Prof. Martin Steidler, the Philharmonic Choir Munich under the direction of Prof. Andreas Hermann and the Vokalensemble St. Peter under the direction of Sebastian Adelhardt.

In addition to her work as a soloist and ensemble singer, Julia is also involved as a singing teacher, for example with the Augsburg Cathedral Boys' Choir.
