

Melanie Gleissner

kind, light-hearted, funny

Melanie Gleissner studied singing and flute. In 2020, she received the Landsberg am Lech district's cultural sponsorship award for 'particularly outstanding achievements in the field of culture (music)'. She regularly performs as a soloist with renowned ensembles such as the Leonhardi Ensemble, Ensemble Naumann, Ensemble Lodron and Musik auf Schloss Filseck. In addition to her artistic activities as a soloist, orchestral musician and ensemble singer, she is also active as a choir director and vocal and instrumental teacher. She has been a scholarship holder at Live music now Augsburg since 2021.
